1939 Hello Everybody

We certainly did appreciate the way the orders for dahlias came in this last season, and best of all, the letters, later on in the autumn, telling us of the fine flowers they had produced and the great amount of pleasure received therefrom.

If we could have only stepped into every one of your gardens, and enjoyed with you, those beautiful and mammoth blooms, then it would have been a perfect dahlia year for us.

We expect sometime, to call on some of you, when your flowers are at their best, and see your "beauties" and have a chat in dahlia lore. You are all invited to visit our gardens.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Emmons.

General Description of Varieties OF THE WORLD'S BEST PRIZE - WINNING Dahlias

We specialize in dahlias that have a record of winning prizes; that are known to be vigorous, and have been thoroughly tested out in many sections of the United States.

Nearly every one of our dahlias have received a Certificate of Merit, from the Trial Grounds at Storrs, Conn., or East Lansing, Mich. That means a rating of at least 85%.

HEALTHY DAHLIAS

It is our policy, and we strictly adhere to it, that NO dahlia will grow in our gardens that shows ANY disease whatsoever. If a dahlia cost us a nice sum of money, it matters not; if it is NOT healthy, it is dug up and burned at once. We never purchase any stock from a dahlia raiser, if we know he allows diseased dahlias to grow in his gardens.

*"We grow a number of the very best
And let, who will, raise all the rest."*

The flowers grow to an enormous size, and without forcing we had blooms the past season that measured over 13 inches across and nearly 9 inches in depth on long stiff stems, that held the flowers high above the foliage. The formation is wonderful, as the long pointed and slightly twisting petals recurve until the stem is hidden from view for 6 or 8 inches. It won as best seedling in 1935. It is on three Honor Rolls. It is a prolific bloomer and the flower stands at a forty-five degree angle. A splendid cut flower. It won many first prizes at both National Shows, Chicago and other exhibitions. Created a sensation wherever shown. It has wonderful substance and keeping qualities and will develop a full flower from a cut bud not even showing color. King Features Syndicate in "Believe It or Not" Cartoon by Ripley, portrays Robt. L. Ripley as "the largest dahlia grown."-----Plant 1.00
- Royal Purchase (C.) "Nunneville" 1936. Here is an incurved cactus that attains immense size. The bloom is full and deep and grows high out of the bush on long, straight stems. The color is a deep straw yellow with outer petals suffused with pink. The petals twist and turn, giving the bloom a shaggy appearance. The bush is four to five feet high, an early bloomer, is clean growing and resists insects. MINIATURE DAHLIAS

- Baby Royal, S. C.—A new Gold Medal miniature from England and one of the most outstanding prize winners so far introduced in this class, always winning the blue-ribbon wherever exhibited. It is a beautiful little flower of salmon-pink and apricot with gold shading. Stems are long and wiry and blooms are of most graceful formation as florets are rolled and incurved. A fine commercial cut-flower variety due to its free blooming and long keeping qualities, and always in demand by florists. We could not begin to supply the demand from the local cut-flower trade for cut blooms of this variety the past season. This little flower stole the whole dahlia show last fall Roots .25

PLANTS

We have found that if plants are started and grown properly, they will produce as good, if not better, results than roots.

All our plants are grown from base cuttings from selected stock, and grown in special containers, which are equivalent to about a four inch flower pot.

We recommend planting out from May 10th to June 25th in this locality.

The size of the flowers, and the height of the plants, given in this catalog, will vary in different locations. We give the approximate dimensions as they grew this last year in our gardens.

CUT FLOWERS

There are many dahlias that are excellent for cutting, and some will last a week, and be nearly as perfect as when plucked. The following list are the ones we consider the best for that purpose:

Purple Mist, Buckeye Bride, Jersey's Beauty, Jane Cowl, Marshall's Pink, Cavalcade, Fairy, Miss Belgium, Paul Pfitzer, Orchid Lady, Queen City, Golden Standard, Jersey's Dainty, Laetare, and Baby Royal.

The cut flowers that we sell each year from our dahlia gardens more than pay our running expenses.

Who Is Who in the Dahlia World

This survey is made from all the authentic reports from the many Dahlia shows throughout the United States during the Autumn of 1938.

It would be too voluminous to give a detailed report of every show and the name of each flower that won, so we will have to be content with just a condensed resume.

A Dahlia bloom, to win a prize, must be good; and the same variety, to win many prizes throughout America, is sufficient evidence to prove its value as a good and worthy dahlia for any garden.

The Dahlia that stood out far ahead of all others was the great Lord of Autumn with a win of 67 times, and the most of these were firsts.

The next in line was that noble old Murphy's Masterpiece with a tally of 62. Many of its wins were for the largest in the show.

We found that old Canadian favorite, Jean Trimbee, came in third with 49 prizes.

Very close to number three was Golden Standard with a count of 44.

It is interesting to see how Hunt's Velvet Wonder came up this year to score 36.

The sixth place was surrendered to Robert L. Ripley with 27 ribbons, and a very large number was for the largest bloom.

We are sorry to see California Idol lose ground and take only 25 prizes for seventh place.

From henceforth, we will name them as they stood in their winnings:

Ballego's Surprise, Satan, Amelia Earhart, Darcey Sainsbury, Oakleigh Monarch, Margrace, Miss Belgium, Ft. Monmouth, Blue River, Milton J. Cross, Kentucky Sun, Jane Cowl, Miss Ohio, Bette Davis, Cavalcade, Jersey's Dainty, Haslerova.

We predict a great change in the dahlia champions this coming Autumn.

We could fill several pages, but you will have to wait until next year. One can hardly go wrong in choosing any of the above, as they certainly have had a thorough test.

We would appreciate reports from every one of our friends, from their dahlia show this fall. It will help us all.

A Great Curiosity

is the

Sacred Lily of India

(Amorphophallus Rivieri)

This is a great novelty flower and is curious, interesting and unique.

Planted in the garden when you plant your Dahlias, it produces an attractive plant that suggests a small palm—a single stem that is mottled green and white with purple and reddish shadings.

There are three palm-like branches bearing numerous small, lacy leaves. When the top is killed by frost, dig the bulb and store as you do your dahlias.

When this bulb becomes four or five years old, it will throw up a large stalk, in February or March, bearing at the top a very large Calla-shaped bloom, wine colored, ten to fourteen inches across, with a spadix that may be eighteen inches to two feet long. When this bulb blooms (it has a rather unpleasant odor) it requires no soil or moisture.

After the bulb once blooms, it continues to do so each year thereafter. Every bulb produces from two to five bulblets each year, besides growing to its normal size.

We never had any kind of a flower that attracted so much attention. Very few people ever saw anything like it.
